Anti-Trust Statement

All Meat Business Women meetings need to be conducted in accordance with the relevant competition and antitrust laws.

You are therefore reminded that you will at all times refrain from discussing any information which is confidential to your company and/or which is likely to affect the commercial strategy or activities of your company. You are in the best position to judge what is, and what is not, commercially sensitive or confidential and so responsibility lies with you in the first place.

Failure to follow these guidelines may bring with it serious consequences for you as an individual, your companies and the trade association itself. Such consequences include heavy fines and in certain cases, under national laws, the imposition of criminal penalties and sentences.
